REFERENCES USED IN THIS PUBLICATION

- American Standard Version (ASV or AV) is a version of the Bible that was released in 1901. It soon came to have other names, such as the American Revised Version, the American Standard Revision, the American Standard Revised Bible, and the American Standard Edition. By the time its copyright was renewed in 1929, it had come to be known by its present name, the American Standard Version.
- Diaglott is a two-language polyglot translation, of the New Testament by Benjamin Wilson, first published in 1864. It is an interlinear translation with the original Greek text and a word-for-word English translation in the left column, and a full English translation in the right column.
- King James Version (KJV) references are used throughout this publication unless otherwise noted.
- Revised Version (RV) (or English Revised Version) of the Bible is a late 19th-century British revision of the King James Version of 1611. It was the first and remains the only officially authorized and recognized revision of the King James Bible.
- Wuest: Kenneth Samuel Wuest (1893–1962) was a noted New Testament Greek (Κοινή) scholar of the mid-20th century...produced his own English translation of the New Testament (the Wuest Expanded Translation—abbreviated WET) based on Nestle's critical text.

"Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be" [Rev.22:12]

Jesus Christ is coming back to earth again. This God-Man—despised, rejected, and crucified, judged as guilty, and cast out by this wicked world - this Man is coming back again. This holy, harmless Son of God had a mock trial, and He was condemned to die. He was given the full extent of the Law—even the death of the cross—the death meted out to the lowest criminals. But He is not dead. Listen!

"I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen." [Rev.1:18]

Death could not hold in bands this incorruptible sinless Man. God raised Him from the dead, and seated Him at His own right hand - the place of power and authority. And this very same Jesus is coming to this earth again. But this time He is coming with "Power And Great Glory"

Someone may ask, "How do you know that He is coming?" Because the Bible—the Word of God—emphatically so declares, in multitudes of passages in both the Old and the New Testaments. These were written by men of God, who lived thousands of years apart. Take the testimony of the two men heard by all the disciples who witnessed the ascension of our Lord:

"Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? THIS SAME JESUS which is taken up from you into Heaven, shall so come in LIKE MANNER as ye have seen Him go into Heaven." [Act.1:11]

Observe the human name is used..."Jesus"...proving that He is coming as a Man, the glorified wonderful Man.

Here we have a 2-fold witness: ❶ The 2 men from heaven dressed in white, and ❷ the 11 men on earth washed white in Jesus' blood. The 11 men on earth had seen Him go into Heaven, and the 2 men from heaven assured them that He should be seen returning in like manner. He went away visibly to the eyes, audibly to the ears, and in a physical, tangible body. And as such He will return again; but, He will be visible to the entire world.

EVERY EYE SHALL SEE HIM

"Behold, He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of Him. Even so, Amen." [Rev.1:7]

Reader, are you ready to meet Him? Some will weep and wail at His Presence. Will you? Get ready to meet Him: Receive Him as your Savior Now. Jesus stands with outstretched arms to receive you. God is "not willing that any should perish" [2Pe.3:9] but that all should repent and live.

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." [Joh.1:12]

This is for you who read these wondrous words. Get ready to meet the King of kings. He is coming. He exclaims: "Surely I come quickly."

Provisionally, Christ "put away sin by the sacrifice of himself" [Heb.9:26]; and now He is coming to put it away in this world. He is actually going to put SIN away. And, if you are in sin, He will be obliged to put you away also. Get rid of sin Now— "By the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost" [Tiu.3:5] through believing on Jesus. Be at peace with God Now, by accepting the reconciliation with God that Christ has made for You by His death on the cross.

"Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus." [Rev.22:20]
